Tips: Think about where you want to hang your piece, what is the overall vibe of the space. Are you more of a neutral person. If you don't have a preference, think about the colors that kept coming up based on the picture that you took.

Main Image for Collage:

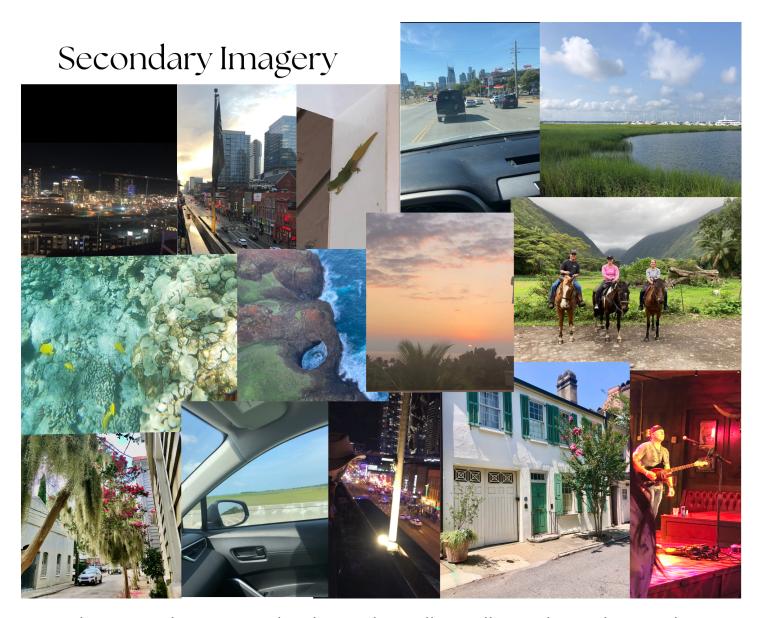

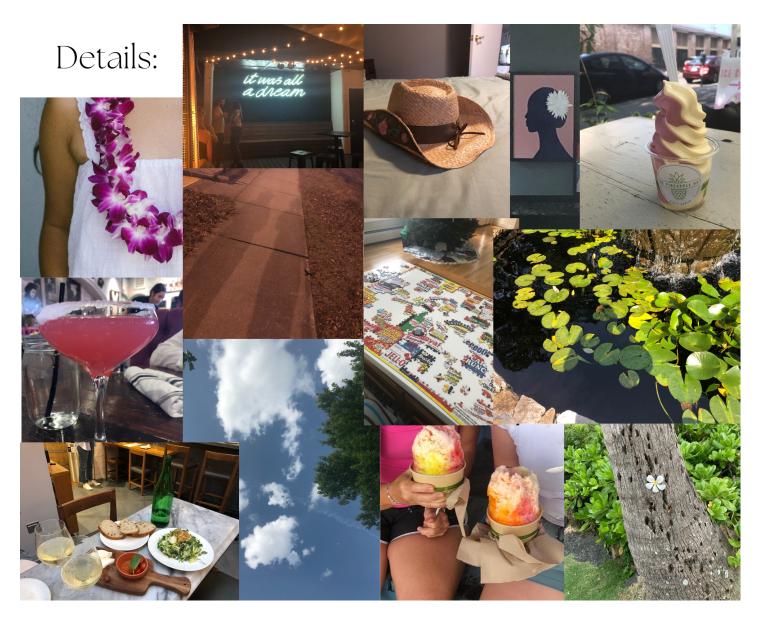

Tips: This is the focal point for your collage. If you have any portrait from your trip that you love this would be the place to put it. Solo trip? Pick the best picture of yourself! Don't want any figures in your collage? Choose an image that represents the whole trip and or experience.

Tips: These are the images that bring the collage all together. Choose the best photos you took of architecture, landscapes, exertions, and activities. You could also include animals, or flora and fauna that was apart of your experiences.

Tips: These are the beautiful memories that make your trip unique. Perhaps you saw a cloud a different way and decided to take a picture. Or every time you saw a plumeria flower on the ground you had to pick it up and find another for your daughter. Or you had the perfect meal. Saw a quote that made you smile or had a favorite animal of the trip. Or maybe you bought your first cowboy hat and rocked it all night long on broadway. These are the images that make your collage unique to you.
